- (h) The facility manager may require student organizations to utilize a contract or vendor agreement for outside vendors and receive a percentage of sales, a commission, or a combination of both.

(2) Fundraising by non-university organizations

Any external organization seeking to raise funds for the benefit of an external organization must possess a current tax-exempt certificate from the Internal Revenue Service. Prior approval for fundraising on campus must be obtained in advance by the facility manager. Organizations must keep current accurate records of funds raised and spent. These records must be available upon request for inspection or audit. If an audit is required, it may be ordered at the organization’s expense.

(3) Solicitations and Sales

- (a) Solicitation is defined as any activity designed to advertise, promote or sell any product or commercial service.
- (b) Solicitation in university residences is not permitted. Advertising signs, posters and fliers may not be distributed in university residences.
- (c) Recognized student organizations may not solicit on campus without obtaining permission from the facility manager. Individuals who collect applications for commercial purposes are restricted from soliciting said applications on campus. An activity that violates university policies or local, state and/or federal laws is forbidden.
- (d) If authorized, solicitations are permitted in university buildings, except for Falcon Outfitters located within the Bowen-Thompson Student Union, where merchandise is sold under the regulations established by management.
